

It's my understanding that the FCC is considering overturning NJ's Do Not Call law. My quality of life has improved as I can now come home from work and not be annoyed with calls from businesses I have no interest in. Better yet, it's stopped those telemarketers who were calling me incessantly, even after asking to be removed from their call lists time and again. NJ's law is working... please don't overturn or weaken it.